College Awarded Big Boost By National Youth Administration

Important That Old Students On NYA Fill Out New Applications If They Want Work

Announcement was made yesterday that $21,600 has been awarded San Francisco State college by the National Youth Administration. This large sum will pay salaries of student workers during the fiscal year of '40. The money is under the supervision of Dean David Cox and Mary A. Ward and Dr. Alexander C. Roberts, President of San Francisco State college.

Based on the October, 1936 enrollment, each student will draw $15.00 a month salary or forty cents an hour. Due to the growth of the college the allotments have been increased for the amount before was based on a 1932 enrollment.

NEW ROLES

No one is put on the payroll until the first day of school each term and all student workers are scratched from the rolls on the last day of the term. Dean Ward is anxious to inform students who have obtained help from the NYA fund that they are not necessarily eligible for the sign up each term or are retained on the payroll from term to term. Every school term a new list of elegibles are drawn up, thus giving all students, new and old, the equal opportunity to share in the fund. This ruling has been made in fairness to the many students who are unable to get work and who must be rejected each term due to the limited number of jobs that are allowed to enlist for NYA jobs each term.

MAESTRO NOBLE

Palace Party

Staters Hear Noble Friday

State takes over the Rose Room Bowl of the Palace Hotel Friday night.

The idea of State having a featured night at one of the local hotels developed from the trinights of previous terms when State shared honors with University of San Francisco and San Francisco Junior College.

Ray Noble's band will provide the music for the evening As well as being a leader, Noble is a composer of such old favorites as "The Very Thought of You," "Goodnight, Sweetheart," and "The Touch of Your Lips." The words of his newest brain child, "Cherokee," are practically unknown. However, there will be a presentation of the song plus lyrics Friday night. Other surprise features for Staters will be presented.

The time is from 9 to 1, and the price is $1.50 per couple. Reservations may be made through Betty De Voe, Betty Zehnder, Ed Smith, and Bob Sweeney.

German Club

German I Students Invited To Club

Students enrolled in German I will be guests of the German club during a meeting this afternoon in the activities room at 4 p.m. Music and refreshments are scheduled. Any student enrolled in a German course is eligible for membership. Miss Elizabeth Selden is faculty sponsor.

The club elected the following officers at their latest meeting: Trudy Strauss, re-elected president; Eugene Debrecht, vice-president; Alice Bergman, secretary, and Berton Gordon, treasurer. Louise Hansell and Phyllis Evans were chosen as refreshment chairmen, George Nelson, public relations chairman and Olga Perkins, A.W.S. representative.

NOTICE

English Majors and Minors who have not yet checked their last semester grades with the deparment adviser should do so at once. A list of available conference hours is posted outside Room 204C.

Franciscan

Changes Made Due To Rains

Unforseen precipitation has necessitated the postponement of all 1940 Franciscan group pictures scheduled for this week until Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of next week," stated Editor Ernie Miguel early today.

The same time schedule will be followed, only the dates will be advanced another week," Miguel stated. "The charge will remain ten cents per person, and may be paid individually or by groups, as the club desires."

Any club or organization that has not yet been photographed is requested to inquire at the Franciscan office this week for an appointment. All group pictures will be taken in the vicinity of the lawn.

Class presidents of LAST semester are requested to report on the lawn on either Monday, Tuesday, or Wednesday of next week for an individual portrait. This picture will be informal, so wear school clothes and carry books.

Following is the schedule for the first three days next week:

MONDAY, March 4

12:15—P.E. CLUB
12:30—BLOCK S
12:45—SIGMA RHO GAMMA

TUESDAY, March 5

Alpha Phi Gamma

Six Pledges Get Inducted

Journalism Fraternity Has Active Program

Six new pledges were inducted into provisional membership in Alpha Gamma chapter, Alpha Phi Gamma last Friday evening, and were guests at a dinner given in their honor at Barney's Restaurant and at the semi-annual publications reception.

Pledges are Bob Buckley, Alex Edelstein, Ed Poole, Betty Zehnder, Dorothy Taliaferro, and Jean Deckman. They may be recognized by the traditional white pencil and ribbon, which they will wear for the pledge period of six weeks.

ATHLETIC AWARD

A committee of pledges and old members will work together in compiling a list of eligibles for the annual Alpha Phi Gamma Best Athlete Award, it was announced today by Ernie Miguel, president. They are Ed Poole, Fred Bender and Phil Schmidt.

Scholarship testing on the morning of April 13 for the annual Mary Louise Kleinecke Journalism scholarship is the other major activity in which the newly pledged members will assist the fraternity.

BUSY PROGRAM

The program for the spring semester for the fraternity includes a boat trip to Angel Island, at least two Sunday morning breakfast meetings, and several picnics, barbecues, and parties, as well as the more serious awarding of the scholarship and athletic award and editing the Student Handbook. President Miguel announced.

First Meeting

Hall Chosen By Beta Pi Sigma

Meeting February 20 for the first session of the year, Beta Pi Sigma members elected officers and made tentative plans for future group activities.

Richard Hall was chosen as president of the organization, and elected as assisting officers were Lloyd Fox, vice-president; Alice Bergman, secretary; and Sid Golinsky, treasurer.

Members propose to have several scientific luminaries speak at meetings during the year. Among these speakers will be experts in the fields of medicine, narcotics, and other scientific pursuits.

Meetings are held every Tuesday, at lunch time in room 207, of Anderson hall, and students interested in the organization's activities are invited to attend.

Publication Party

Publications Play Host To Sixty Scribes At Semi-Annual Reception

Under the sponsorship of the Board of Publication, the semi-annual publications reception was held last Friday night at 1756 Broadway. Over sixty journalists, guests and friends enjoyed an evening of entertainment, dancing and "eats".

Special guests were Professor DeCalvus Simonson, Harry Landers, Al Anderson and Clarke Johnson. A feature of the evening was the piano and vocal ramblings of Johnson, Hollywood hopeful.

According to the number of scribes who took to the light fantastic during the course of the evening, it might well be said that "everyone had a jam good time." In fact, the party has given rise to a desire on the part of the scribes to hold such an event every quarter. All in favor say "Aye".

Alex Edelstein, Ed Poole, Lew Morris, Bob Buckley and Fred Bender were the committee in charge of the evening. The rooms were decorated in the school colors with festoons of crepe paper and bunches of daffodils and sweet peas. An automatic phonograph supplied the music for dancing.

New Student Leaders

Six Class Presidents, Women's Representatives Take Office

Weekes, Barry, Bacich, Finn, Pivnick, Gilkey Take Prexy Positions For Their Respective Classes

With what was termed by election officials as "an excellent vote," State college students filed to the polls last week to name their representatives in student body politics for the coming semester.

Announcement of the winners was made by student body president Bob Sweeney.

In the single student body contest, Jerry Polite defeated Marie Vallarino for the vacant seat of women's representative.

WEEKES IS SENIOR PREXY

The classes, with the exception of the high seniors and high juniors named their officers to guide the destinies although run-offs will be necessary for several posts.

The low senior class named George Weekes, president; Bertha Meagles, secretary, and Al Burros, treasurer.

Ruth Graves and Bob Wolf captured the A.M.S. and A.W.S. representative jobs for the high juniors.

BARRY WINNER

Naming Ed Barry, president; Pat Prins, vice-president; Sherry Auerback, secretary; Jacqueline Hausman, treasurer; Jonas Waxman, A.M.S. representative, the low juniors still are faced with a run-off to choose between Peggy Niven and Inez Erickson for A.W.S. representative.

The high sophs selected Anthony Bacich, president; Jim Syxnan, treasurer; Pat Sullivan, A.M.S., and Lillian Kaplan, A.W.S.

DOUBLE RUN-OFF

A two-way tie for secretary and treasurer occurred in the low sophomore balloting with Dot Foppiano and Verna Blumquist tieing for the secretary job, and Fred Schwartz and Manuel Morena as secretary. John Finn was selected as president, Violet Nicoleff, viceprexy; Jack McInerney to the A.M.S. and Barbara Biggs to the A.W.S.

Isadore Pivnick snared the president berth for the high frosh with Eleanor Crocker, vice-president; Ann Rakousky, treasurer, and Dick Chinn, A.M.S.

FROSH LEADERS

The low frosh named Jack Gilkey, president and were facing a run-off between Pauline Street and Eleanor Nanry for vice-president. Betty Hansen was elected secretary and a second run-off was in order to settle the treasurer's post, a three-way affair between Bob Lucy, Don Perala and Charles White. Mario Giacosa and Dave Wilson likewise tied for the A.M.S. post and Ann Brunton was named to the A.W.S. position.

Official tallies of the election were not disclosed due to a policy adopted by the student council last semester. According to President Bob Sweeney, "It is not conducive to good will on the campus to publish the result of student elections," is the reason for the voting figures being kept secret.

Radio

Transcriptions Loaned By KSAN

Through an arrangement with Station KSAN, San Francisco outlet of the California Radio System, a number of 15-minute transcriptions heard on the air today, will be loaned Miss Jesse D. Casebolt, teacher of English, Drama and Speech. The records will be used in the various classes as examples of voice and sound methods and techniques.

The series to be heard first are from a library of transcriptions which were made and produced in New York and depict various historical and colorful episodes in American history.

Responsible for the arrangement of the loan of the transcriptions to San Francisco State College was Galen "Stub" Harvey, radio editor of the Golden Gater.

Alumni Tea

Bib 'n Tucker Welcome Sponsor

A tea in honor of the alumni and to welcome the new sponsor of the Bib 'n Tucker club, Miss Sally Wilde, was held Sunday, February 25, at the home of Dorothy Bennett.

President Elvira Huenergardt greeted the club members as they entered and gave the alumni present corsages of jasmine. The girls who belong to the latter organization are those who attended State and upon graduation still wished to attend club meetings. These girls got together and started a group for the alumni of the club.

Miss Wilde was introduced to the alumni members and to those active club members whom she had not met.

NOTICE!

Bills for senior fees will be placed in the boxes this week, it was announced today by the registrar's office. They will be payable Monday.

Initiation

Kappa Delta's Take Members

Girls who have leaped and stretched well enough to satisfy the older, critical members of Kappa Delta Tau will be initiated into the organization tonight in the Women's gym.

Under the direction of Miss Bernice Van Gelder they practice and learn new steps of the modern dance. Jeanie Van Arsdale as president of the group said today, "I am very happy to see so many girls coming to our meetings. We all have a lot of fun dancing and will in the near future present a dance for the public. All of the girls in Kappa will take part."

The initiation ceremonies will take place at 7. Only the girls in the group will be permitted to see the ceremony.

A.W.S. Hold First Tea Of Semester

The A.W.S. held their first tea of the semester in the activities room on Wednesday afternoon, February 21. The theme of the tea was George Washington's birthday. Laverne Jackson was in charge of the tea and Fay Owen was in charge of the entertainment. Harriet Smith favored the girls with a few vocal selections. Among the members of the faculty present were Miss Boch, Dean Ward, Miss Pance, Mrs. Crumpton, Mrs. Ellsworth, Miss McCall, Miss Selden, Mme. Dony and Mrs. Dorris. Tea and cake were served.

Hershey Speaks Today At Noon

"The Christian Student and Social-Economic Change," will be the subject for a speech to be given by Mr. Wesley Hershey, Y.M.C.A. secretary of the University of California, at the meeting of the Westminster club, in the activities room at 12 today. Pictures for the Franciscan will be taken of the members, on the lawn by the Women's gym before the meeting.

Documentary Films Tomorrow

The Film Art Group at the San Francisco Museum of Art will present the first in their 1940 series of motion picture programs, Thursday, February 29. The showing will be without charge and will include the American documentary films "The River" and "The Plow That Broke the Plains". State students interested are urged to attend.

ATTENTION

All sophomore students and upper division transfers who have not filed major and minor blanks should consult with department advisers and file these blanks before making an appointment for counseling. Such students are welcome to ask any questions they wish at the general counselors in room 105.

International

Of Sand And Time

From Herr Hitler's speech last Saturday, one might draw the conclusion that Germany is on the move toward the highest in civilization. Quoting, "Until the advent of Adolph Hitler, Germany was caught in the bowels of a plutocratic democracy fostered by international bankers and Jews."

Ah, yes. Germany has risen to a higher civilization—a civilization founded on a juggernaut of war. Built on the ruins of hundreds of thousands of men, women, and children slaughtered in the stupid task of war.

This house is built on sand.

State

Where Is It?

Now you see it, now you don't.

Those thousands of reliefers, more appropriately known as tax-absorbers, will have to struggle along on less money. The legislature very neatly dumped a lemon in Governor Olson's lap, and the governor squeezed the juice out of it when he vetoed the measure to appropriate twelve millions for temporary relief.

This means those of lesser means will not be able to buy gas for their cars, and will have to smoke those ten cent cigarettes.

Campus

Minority Rules Majority

Last Wednesday's Gater carried a screaming banner stating that two thousand college citizens would vote that day.

Well, the Gater wasn't far from being wrong, only about seventeen hundred short of the advertised amount. This paltry sum of six hundred voted in the student body election, and consequently the other seventeen hundred who did not vote can have absolutely no legitimate beef if something goes wrong.

The five dollars you pay into the student body fund entitles each and every one of you who hold a student body card the right and privilege of voting for office. The competency with which you vote will reflect in the competency of the running and maintenance of your student government.

President Sweeney has tried his utmost to promote co-operation and good government among the students, but to his dismay and discomfort the student body has failed to meet him half way.

An active government is a government in which all those involved participate for the benefit of the whole. It is not a rule by the minority.

Such a majority at this college has failed.

One of Nature's Noblemen

Perhaps you've noticed him. He's the kindly old gent who's rapidly becoming as much of a tradition around State, as the "Screwball Village" . . . "Anderson Court" . . . or . . . "what-have-you?"

He's the fellow who greets students, going to and from school, with a happy smile and a cheery, "Hello!"

Co-eds and male-students, alike, distinguish him by his familiar greeting,

"Good morning to you . . . my little teachers" . . . and then with a twinkle in his eye, adds, "my little teachers . . . not yet!"

Yes, students, perhaps you've noticed him . . . perhaps not."

He's the amiable conductor on the number seven street car!!!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

● State is growing. It is with this thought uppermost in mind that I wish to ask all of the students to please send into the Gater any events of a social nature which they may attend.

We now have a large student body and there is no doubt that many parties and such are taking place right along. Why not get these bits of the happier side of life written up?

Simply write down the names of the State men and women who attend the various functions and give it to someone in the Gater office.

Thank you,
Jean Deckman,
Club and Social Editor

Dear Editor:

● As one of the new students at S.F. State I want to commend the student body and the teachers for their cordial greeting which has been extended us here. Some of us come from nearby while others from distant places and yet to feel that we're wanted and considered gives us all appreciative feeling and an anxious longing to know you better.

Thank you again.

Gratefully yours,

BOOK-A-NEARING

By ELIZABETH MARTIN

Roberts, Kenneth. Northwest Passage. Doubleday, Doran & Co., 1937.

Motion pictures based upon novels have done much in publicizing books that otherwise might slip into oblivion. The best seller Northwest Passage does not fall into such a group, for it is excellent in its own right. It has undoubtedly gained readers because of the well-done and surprisingly faithful picture version.

The first section of the book deals with the annihilation of an Indian village during the French and Indian War by Rogers' Rangers and their agonizing return to civilization. The whole conception is romantic saved from melodrama by a variety of realistic details. The characterization is different from most recent novels as typified by the introverts Dos Passos and Wolfe, for Roberts' characters, although types with individual characteristics, are extroverts who see with extrovert eyes and instinctively know what their course of action is.

The second part of the book deals with the search for the Northwest passage, rather as a goal inspiring Rogers than an actual problem. The reader realizes that the search for the passage is doomed to failure. The care of this section is the tragedy of the Major's disintegration into a drunken sot, a tragedy read between lines which recount the love and success story of Langdon Towne, the narrator.

In it incidentally is a penetrating and accurate study of eighteenth century London life—drunkenness, poverty, baby-farming, debtors' prisons are all there, not so vividly as in Dickens and Melville, but still sharply and realistically. Here the better known figures of the time are introduced — Franklin, Burke, Sir Joshua Reynolds, Copley and many others. Lengthy descriptions of costumes and settings do not detract from its action; it is not a modern story in historical trappings.

The author goes beyond the limit of the period to express a trait unlimited by time. He writes: "The Northwest Passage, in the imagination of all free people, is a short cut to fame, fortune and romance, a hidden route to Golconda and the mystic East. On every side of us are men who hunt perpetually for their personal Northwest Passage, too often sacrificing health, strength and life itself to the search; and who shall say they are not happier in their vain but hopeful quest than wiser, duller folk who sit at home, venturing nothing and with sour laugh, deriding the seekers for that fabled thorough-fare—that panacea for all the afflictions of a humdrum world."

There are things to be criticized in the book—the detailed beginning and somewhat abrupt ending; the lack of depth in the characterizations; the unnecessary thrusting in of great names; and a lack of humor. Modern books as a rule have humor in some degree ranging from cynical to whimsical. This book has none; even the low comedy touches are described seriously—not a fault of the picture adaptation, however. On the whole, the vigor of the action, the idealism of the characters, and the spirit of frontier adventure that so typified American life from late colonial days through the federal period vastly overbalance the weaker points in Northwest Passage and make it appeal to those who like adventure and romance and accuracy in their historical fiction.

The Cats Whisker

THANKS A MILLION

You were very kind in your comments concerning the advent of "The Cat's Whisker" last week. If it wasn't because this writer is concerned about what is in the column and how it serves you, probably nothing would ever be said.

As you were told then the column would carry, in addition to dial gossip and comments on subjects pertinent to radio and this campus, an occasional line-up of some of the programs which are attracting current favor. So here goes, in just a different way.

CHATTER JINGLE

Here's a few spots on the dial that will make your week worth while. Students praise this one for fun, for Benny ain't the only one (KGO—Sunday, 5 p.m.) It it's poetry you page, then listen to Ted's Pilgrimage. (KGO, Sunday, 10 a.m.) If your 'larm clock will not chime, listen in for Aubrey's time. (KGO. Weekdays, 6:30 a.m.) Skipper is the man for you. Clears up that hangover too. (7:30 a.m. Monday, KSAN). Walker gives them all a chance. Let's them play or sing or dance. (KGO, Monday, 8 p.m.) Listen to that Blue man blow, tells you what's on KPO. (10:35 a.m. daily). If it's gossip that you choose, listen to Caen's Regal news. (Sunday 7:15 p.m. KPO). That is all until next time of this chatter set in rhyme.

CONGRATULATIONS TOO!

The men who attended recently A.M.S. rally in the Little Theatre heard what this writer considers to be a "natural". With a little coaching, the kind Will Aubrey or Helen Morgan could give, Jean Gillin could start pretty high up on the ladder to success on her first program break. It was a delight to see Jean sing and we hope her lots of success.

Speaking of talent, Jack Fisher is certainly no slouch at the piano. His capable control of the eighty-eight black and white notes at the rally was an added delight and a program highlight. Thanks, too, "Jerry" Sharkey for your "easy to listen to" warbling.

Incidentally, have any of you thought of radio as an added opportunity to earn those necessary sheckles to help you through college? If you're interested, the number is SUtter 1920, and ask for Helen Morgan. It's not a gag, and it might be that break you've been looking for.

Until next time we meet it's, as ever, Yours sincerely.

Gaters Swamp Foe 44-19 In P.A.A. Tilt

Winning Nine To Meet Tough Bears Tomorrow

Flushed by five straight triumphs, the Gater baseball nine travels to Berkeley tomorrow to cross bats with the California Bears, at the Bears' home diamond, Edwards Field.

The California lineup boasts a galaxy of stars led by Captain Mel Duezabou, intercollegiate base circling champion, and his keystone mate, shortstop, Cliff Perry. In the pitching department Cal has Mike Koll, Jim Hebert, Al White, and Dick Reid. Hebert most likely will work against the Golden Tide. Carl Herzog, powerful hitter, will be his batterymate.

HURLING CHOICE

Coach Hal Harden's hurling choice will be either southpaw Carl Haas or Gene Bryant; behind the plate will be "Red" Weekes. Bob Moore will hold down the initial sack, "Stubby" Ahern, second base; Dick Cestnik, third base, and Jake Fischer returns after a layoff to his shortstop position. In the outfield are Phil Stolz, Walt Largomarsino and "Tiger" Granucci.

Improving with every game, the Gaters defeated the Bank of America 6-3 last Saturday at Roberts Field to chalk up their fifth straight victory within a week.

Carl Hanes, Gater pitcher, allowed but six blows, while the Staters jumped on the opposing hurler for 11 safeties.

NO HIT, NO RUN

Bob Kerwin and "Stubby" Ahern combined to throw a no-run, no-hit game against Washington High to feature the mound performances. Carl Hanes and Gene Bryant, pitching mainstays, also tossed two good games. George "Red" Weekes performed creditably behind the bat for the Tide nine.

Wendling Wins Cross Country In Fast Time

In a very respectable time of 8 min. 7.1 secs., high freshman Aubrey Wendling annexed the cross country run from a field of 30 contestants, last Friday.

Getting an early lead, Wendling set the pace and handily maintained his edge over Craig Gaffney and Leo Coulson at the finish tape. Gaffney finished second and Coulson was a short 20 yards behind the leader.

In the scoring the high freshmen handily drubbed the rest of the contestants, snaring 24 points for a 5-1 margin over their nearest competitor, the high sophs. The high sophs with 8 and the low frosh with 4 rounded out the point.

The field finished in the following order with points awarded on the basis of 10 for first to 1 for tenth:

1. Aubrey Wendling, high frosh.
2. Craig Gaffney, high soph.
3. Leo Coulson, high junior.
4. Jack Berruto, high soph.
5. Bruce Lydecker, high frosh.
6. Jack Bareilles, high frosh.
7. Tony Lando, low frosh.
8. John Tash, high frosh.
9. Stan Davis, high soph.
10. Don Lowrie, high soph.

Boxers vs Spartan Tomorrow Night

State's boxing team will exchange punches with the San Jose state junior varsity contingent in a meet tomorrow evening at San Jose.

Matches with Santa Clara, Stanford, California junior varsity, and a return match with Central Y. are tentatively set, said Coach Kupfer.

"Response to wrestling is very poor, and berths on both boxing and wrestling teams are wide open," he stated.

Interclass Track Meet Sat., Kezar

Hurdlers, broad-jumpers, pole-vaulters, and many more confident track and field enthusiasts will assemble at Kezar Stadium, Saturday at 2 p.m., for the Interclass track meet.

"This gala event is definitely the most important track affair of the season, for," asserted Coach Cox, "50 per cent of the team is chosen then and there." The prospects thus far are many and the competition should be very keen, for all block "S" men are ineligible to compete. Four places will constitute each event, and the tested winners will receive ribbons.

The cindermen are in for a strenuous season, according to the official schedule announced by Mr. Cox. State meets the alumni, March 9; Cal. Aggies, March 16; San Francisco J.C., March 17 or 24; San Mateo J.C., March 23; San Jose State, March 30; Chico State, April 6; Humboldt State, April 13; Santa Barbara State, April 20; and College of Pacific, April 27.

Practice meets for the junior varsity will be run off each Tuesday and Wednesday at Roberts Field with the high schools.

Berruto, Coulson Win Marathon

Definitely put on the books as an annual-to-be event, the four-day intramural track marathon came to an end last Wednesday noon on the upper field, and leading the field to win was the team of Arno Berruto and Leo Coulson. In the four days of competition, 24 minutes of continual running was consumed, and in that time Berruto and Coulson circled 59½ laps.

Close on the heels of the winners was the duet of Dubois and Wendling, who totaled 59¼ laps for the second place medal. The silver third place medal was copped by Zamloch and Meier with 58 laps to their credit.

Ribbon winners were the four remaining teams, who finished in the order named: Davis-Gaffney, Grantham-Bareilles, Lowrie-Goettel, and Pivnick-Harriman. Competition was keen, as none of the teams did less than 56 laps.

VOLLEYBALL TOURNEY

Entries are pouring in for the next intramural event—volleyball. Among the leading contenders who have signified their intention of competing are Sigma Pi Sigma, runners-up last year; playground directors, Old Men's Athletic Club, Alpha Phi Gamma, Phi Epsilon Mu and a host of others. Many strong teams are entering the race.

teams are coming in from the frosh gym classes.

Today is the deadline, and competition is slated to begin on Thursday, February 29, during the noon hour. Coach Don Kupfer has announced that there is ample room to play this popular sport since the lower tennis courts have been completed. Rules and regulations of volleyball may be obtained from Frank Jackson, member of Intramural Board and commissioner of volleyball.

The Intramural Board has moved the date of the gigantic boxing and wrestling show up about a week at the suggestion of Coach Kupfer, who believes the entrants need a little more time to condition themselves. The event is tentatively scheduled to be run off on the evening of February 14 in the Women's gymnasium.

SOFTBALL PLANS—

Following the volleyball tourney, the softball title race will begin. Saul Simon, commissioner of softball, is already making plans to take care of this popular sport, as many entries are expected. Defending champions, Sigma Pi Sigma, will have to hustle this year to retain the title, as many strong teams are entering the race.

Split Two Games With Gauchos

Climaxing their most successful season in history, the San Francisco State cagers split a two-game series with Santa Barbara State, Friday and Saturday on the Gauchos' court. The Golden Gaters won the first contest, 42 to 41, and lost an overtime game, 51 to 41, the second night.

Dave Kerwin, guard, was the hero of the first encounter. He was awarded two foul shots in the last minute of play and sunk both of them to give State its winning margin.

The Staters played flawless ball to win the opening game, and Coach Dan Farmer kept his starting quintet in the battle throughout. They held a 20 to 11 margin at half time, and retained a slight edge until the last minute of play. A belated Santa Barbara rally put them in front, 40 to 39; then Kerwin won the game with his charity shots.

In the second game, overcoming a 26 to 18 lead at the intermission to tie the score at 39-all at the end of the regular playing time, Carl Gustafson, substitute guard, rang the bell with the field goal that knotted the count. He tipped the ball in the basket as the gun sounded ending the game.

In the overtime period State's defense cracked wide open after Santa Barbara obtained a four-point edge. Lowell Steward, sensational center, scored 27 points to lead the Gauchos' attack.

State Faces Ram Cagers Tonight

San Francisco State advanced in the P.A.A. basketball tourney in their opening game Monday night by trouncing a weak Chapel of the Oaks squad from Oakland, 44 to 19.

This victory puts State up against San Francisco Junior college Wednesday evening, also at Kezar Pavilion.

After the top squad built up a half time score of 31-14, the rest of the State aggregation held the floor against the Oaks, who never threatened. Nine minutes of the second period passed before either connected from the floor. Hammond finally put one through to break the famine. New man Peterson, still looking green but willing, went in near the end to hit the hoop twice.

Game of the evening was the University of San Francisco's narrow squeak, 38-37, over the inspired French Athletic club. John and Louis Loustalot, brothers of our Ernie, were important cogs in the near victory, but tiny Al Baylacq was the miracle man of the fracas. He had a charmed spot at the left side of the basket, about 25 feet out, where he swished balls through the loop during the second half for 16 points.

Fencers Travel

State's fencing team will journey to San Jose State tomorrow, to engage the Spartan foilers. The fights will start at 7 o'clock.

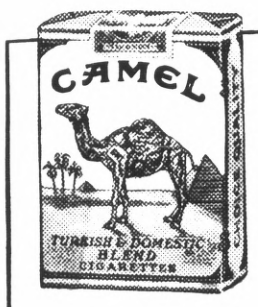
LIKES FLASHING SPEED ON SKIS

but chooses slow-burning Camels for

It takes your breath away even to watch him. Down the side of the mountain... a perfect telemark turn... and there he goes...faster and faster. That's Bob Bourdon, former Vermont champion. On skis, he's one of New England's fastest. But in smoking, he's strictly on the slow side. Read what he says (at right).

EXTRA MILDNESS
EXTRA COOLNESS
EXTRA FLAVOR
SPEED'S FINE IN SKIING BUT THE 'EXTRAS' IN SMOKING GO WITH SLOWER-BURNING CAMELS

In the Cannon Mountain Aerial Tramway, Franconia Notch, N. H., Bob Bourdon (above) enjoys a slow-burning Camel. "No speed for me in my smoking," says this ski champion. "Camels are slower-burning and give me extra mildness, extra coolness, and extra flavor."



In recent laboratory tests, CAMELS burned 25% slower than the average of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands tested—slower than any of them. That means, on the average, a smoking plus equal to

"THE faster the going, the more fun in skiing," says Bob Bourdon. But he has a different angle on cigarettes. When Bob Bourdon says: "Slow burning is my guide to more mildness, more coolness, and more flavor," he's putting the stamp of actual smoking experience on the findings of science.

Fast burning in a cigarette means heat. Nothing dulls the delicate elements of cigarette flavor and aroma so surely as excess heat. There's little pleasure or comfort in a hot, flat smoke in which the flavor has been burned away. The extra mildness, refreshing coolness, and that smooth, mellow flavor of Camels are confirmed by recent widely reported scientific tests, in which Camels...the cigarette of costlier tobaccos... burned the slowest of the sixteen of the largest-selling brands tested! (See panel at left.) So, change to slow-burning Camels and enjoy extra pleasure and extra smoking.

Frosh Hop Set For Fairmont

The Terrace room of the Fairmont hotel has been selected as the setting of the Frosh Hop, was the declaration of low freshman president Jack Gilkey yesterday.

He also stated that he and high frosh prexy Isadore Pivnick had decided to change the date of the dance to March 20. If the original date of March 16 had been kept the affair would have had to been held in the Gold room. Was the reason they gave for the change.

The new date is on a Wednesday but is the last day of the school week because of the start of Easter vacation.

More N.Y.A.

Three important facts are considered when a student applies for an NYA job. First, does the student really need the job. Each student is given a personal interview by either Dean Ward or Dean Cox. Second, does the student carry a satisfactory load of school work and is the student able to do at least a "C" average work in college. Third and one of the most important points in the application is, does the student warrant such help as testified by his moral character. The second and third points are rules set down by the National Board and must be strictly adhered to by all those in charge of such funds.

Three Pledged By Alpha Omega

Rita DeAndreis, Patricia Lundberg, and Carleen Miller were made acquainted with their pledgeship duties last night at a special meeting of Alpha Omega sorority, held at the home of Lilian Kaplan. Among the things discussed during the evening was the barn dance that is to be held in April in the school gym.

Sigma Pi Sigma Pledge Pair

Al Barros and Jack Carolan will be formally introduced to pledgeship in Sigma Pi Sigma fraternity it was announced early this week by Jack Fischer fraternity president.

The ceremony will take place Sunday afternoon and will be followed by a social in which all the fraternity members will participate.

The pledges will enter a three-month period of pledgeship which they must successfully pass through to attain membership. It is climaxed by an informal and formal initiation when fraternity keys will be presented them. Until then they will wear their pledge pins which will be given them Sunday.

Cake Sale Held To Swell Fund

Do you like cake? Any kind of cake?

The Parent-Faculty club is sponsoring a cake sale Wednesday, March 6. The purpose of the sale is to raise money for the student loan fund. Slices of the cakes will be sold in room 109 from 11 to 12:30 for five cents.

The cakes will be home-made by the members of the Parent-Faculty club. Mrs. J. S. Tilden is the chairman of the sale and will be assisted by the other members of the club with the selling.
